“Rigo is simply stylish”

Rigo is a steel rod chair available with a chrome plated finish. With its straight lines and multitude of applications, Rigo is sure to be a winner.

Rigo has an injection moulded polypropylene seat and back with an anti-UV treatment and is available in several colour options. It can also be supplied with upholstered seat and back pads from the Burgess collection of fabrics or can be specified by the client.

Other options available are arms, linking and a trolley for easy transportation.

The upholstered chair stacks up to 15 high and the chair without upholstery stacks up to 20 high

Accessory - Floor level linking

Optional - Felt pads to minimise noise on hard floors
